ORDER ALLOWING PARTIAL REIMBURSEMENT OF ATTORNEY EXPENSES

Having considered the application for reimbursement of attorney expenses filed March 1, 1974, by Robert C. Bell, Jr., the attorney of record for Hannahville Indian Community, the Forest County Potawatomi Community, and the Potawatomi Indians of Indiana and Michigan, Incorporated, plaintiffs in Docket 29-J; the attached schedules and supporting documentation; the applicant's motion for partial reimbursement of expenses filed May 20, 1976; the defendant's responses; and the entire record regarding the application, the Commission finds:

1. The Award. On April 25, 1973, the Commission entered a final award in Dockets 217, 15-K, and 29-J for $4,104,818.98 in favor of the consolidated plaintiffs on behalf of the Potawatomi Tribe or Nation as it existed between 1795 and 1833, 30 Ind. Cl. Comm. 144, 204. Funds to satisfy the award were appropriated by the Congress on January 3, 1974, 87 Stat. 1071.

2. The Application. The applicant alleges in his petition that he incurred $61,135.26 in reimbursable expenses in the prosecution of his clients' claims.

3. The Attorney Contracts. The claims in this matter were prosecuted under five contracts:

a. On January 5, 1948, the Hannahville Indian Community and Attorneys Dorr E. Warner and Walter H. Maloney, Sr., entered into an initial contract that was approved by the Bureau of Indian Affairs on March 8, 1948, and was designated as Contract No. I-1-ind. 42007. The contract was for a period of ten years beginning with the date of approval.

b. On September 2, 1958, a new contract was entered into between the Hannahville Indian Community and Attorney Walter H. Maloney, Sr. That contract was approved on January 14, 1959, and was designated as Symbol 14-20-0650 No. 983. The contract was for a period of ten years beginning on March 8, 1958. On March 24, 1964, the Bureau of Indian Affairs approved an assignment by Mr. Maloney, Sr., of his interests in this claims contract, insofar as Dockets 29-J and 29-K were concerned, to his son Walter H. Maloney, Jr. In November 1964, Mr. Walter H. Maloney, Jr., assigned his interests in the contract to Mr. Bell. The 1958 contract, with the approval of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, has been extended twice since 1968 and is valid until March 7, 1978.

c. On January 7, 1948, the Forest County Potawatomi Community and Attorneys Dorr E. Warner and Walter H. Maloney, Sr., entered into an initial contract for representation that was approved on May 3, 1948, by the Bureau of Indian Affairs for a period of ten years beginning with the date of approval. It was identified as Contract No. I-1-ind. 42011.

d. On May 31, 1958, a new contract was entered into between the Forest County Potawatomi Community and Attorney Walter H. Maloney, Sr. This contract was approved on August 13, 1958, by the Bureau of Indian Affairs for a period of ten years beginning on May 3, 1958, and was designated as Symbol 14-20-0650 No. 978. In November 1963, Mr. Maloney, Sr., assigned his interests in the contract, insofar as Dockets 29-J and 29-K were concerned, to his son Walter H. Maloney, Jr. In November 1964, Mr. Maloney, Jr., assigned his interests in the contract to Mr. Bell. This 1958 contract has been extended twice since 1968, with the approval of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, and is valid until May 3, 1978.

e. On February 20, 1965, the Potawatomi Indians of Indiana and Michigan, Inc., Attorneys Walter H. Maloney, Sr., and Robert C. Bell, Jr., entered into an initial contract for representation that was approved on April 13, 1965, by the Bureau of Indian Affairs for a term of ten years beginning with the date of approval. This contract was identified as No. 14-20-0350-260. The contract, with the approval of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, has been extended to April 13, 1977.

Before his death in 1967, Walter H. Maloney, Sr., made additional assignments of his remaining interests in contracts numbered 978 and 983 above to applicant Robert C. Bell, Jr., the earliest of which was approved by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs April 26, 1963, wherein Walter H. Maloney, Sr., assigned all of his interests in contracts numbered 978 and 983 insofar as such interests affected Dockets 29-B, C, G, L, M, O, and P.

All of the contracts provided that the attorneys were to be entitled to recover actual and necessary expenses incurred in the prosecution of the clients' claims before this Commission.

4. Notices. By letters dated March 4, 1974, the Commission notified the three tribal clients named above, and the defendant, of the filing of the application, sending them appropriate copies of the filings. No reply was received from any of the three tribal clients.

The defendant responded by letter dated May 24, 1974, wherein it reported that the Department of the Interior regarded as ambiguous a number of specific expenses alleged in the application, and that additional evidence was needed to sustain such items. The response of the defendant included an attachment in the form of a memorandum from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to the Solicitor of the Department of the Interior which, among other things, outlined numerous objections to specific items of expense alleged in the application. After making a preliminary study of the application, the Commission notified Mr. Bell, by letter dated July 25, 1974, that there were deficiencies in his application. Thereafter, on March 12, 1976, Mr. Bell was furnished a detailed analysis of his petition which identified with particularity those items of expenses which appeared to be allowable and those items which required further explanation and documentation. On May 20, 1976, Robert C. Bell, Jr., filed a motion for partial reimbursement of expenses covering the unquestioned expenses listed in the March 12, 1976, analysis.

5. Partial Determination of Expenses for Robert C. Bell, Jr. Upon consideration of Mr. Bell's motion and the entire record in the case, the Commission has determined that the motion for partial reimbursement of expenses should be granted. Those items of expense for which reimbursement is allowed total $19,860.08, and they are set forth in the attached appendix to this order. All of the listed items have supporting documentation, and they are reasonable and proper expenses of litigation.

6. Balance of Claimed Expenses. No action is being taken on the balance of the expenses claimed by Mr. Bell. A determination on such expenses will be held in abeyance for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of this order, during which time Mr. Bell should submit any further documentation or explanation he may have concerning his petition for reimbursement of the remaining items of expense.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that out of the funds appropriated to pay the final award entered April 25, 1973, there shall be disbursed to Robert C. Bell, Jr., attorney of record in Docket 29-J, the sum of $19,860.08 as partial reimbursement of expenditures made in the prosecution of the claim in Docket 29-J.
