Defendant.	)

INTERLOCUTORY ORDER

Upon the additional findings of fact numbered 34 through 83, and the accompanying opinion, all of which are hereby made part of this order, the Commission concludes that:

1. The agricultural, grazing and townsite lands, totalling 22,737.21 acres, had a fair market value as of March 4, 1907, of $430,324.65.

2. Known and potential coal deposits under these lands increased the fair market value thereof by the amount of $110,000.00.

3. Known and potential oil and gas deposits under these lands increased the fair market value thereof by the amount of $550,000.00.

4. The amount of Creek Tribal funds paid to erroneous allottees was $25,381.55.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that plaintiff shall have and recover from the defendant the amount of $1,115,706.20 less such offsets, if any, as may be allowable under the Indian Claims Commission Act.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 17th day of February 1977.
